Why This Book Matters:

The God Delusion explains to readers the unlikeliness of God's existence and helps readers understand the motivation behind their "God-driven" actions.

The Big Takeaways:

1. People's belief in God is easily disputable, leading to a lack of weight in trying to influence others.
 1. If Proof and logic are often not present in arguments around the existence of God.
2. The Bible cannot be used as proof for the existence of God.
 1. Scriptures in the Bible constantly refute themselves.
3. There is more factual information backing the scientific reasonings for human existence.
 1. Existence is already not likely, but the existence of God is even more unlikely.

4. The idea of God was created by evolving humans but holds no actual value.

1. Religion does not come from God; humans created religion.

5. Our desire for goodness is for our own righteousness, not in the name of God.

1. Goodness has evolved with humans.
