The Big Takeaways:

- 1. Tribes are a necessary part of work life.
 1. If A sense of community is key to survival in every aspect of life.
- 2. A way of life is present in every tribe.
 1. The way people work and their belief systems heavily influence the work they get done.
- 3. There are five stages of a tribe.
 1. The first few stages of a tribe are rough and don't make a lot of progress.

4. The third stage of a tribe is the most common way for a tribe to exist.

1. At this stage, people recognize the community, but they still have a goal of self-fulfillment.

5. Stage four is the perfect stage for a tribe to exist.

1. At this stage, people are more interested in the success of the tribe than they are of their singular successes.
